

In the past few months, the Upper Providence Township Police Department has added five new officers to their patrolman ranks. Following an extensive process, consisting of a written exam, physical testing, interviews and background investigations, these five candidates were hired to serve the community and enforce the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in Upper Providence Township. Congratulations to Shea Johnson, Sean Franchini, Amanda Morgan, Steven Dise, and Michael Sheehan.

(Chief Toomey alongside Shea Johnson at his swearing in ceremony at Judge Gadzicki's District Court)

---

(Judge Gadzicki, Chief Toomey, Sean Franchini & Sean's Father at Sean's swearing in ceremony)

(Judge Gadzicki, Chief Toomey, Amanda Morgan & Amanda's parents at Amanda Morgan's swearing in ceremony)

---

(Chief Toomey, Steven Dise & Judge Gadzicki at Steven's swearing in ceremony)

(Michael Sheehan, Chief Toomey & Judge Rebar at Michael's swearing in ceremony held at Judge Rebar's District Court)